“ ART IS OUR MOST PRECIOUS HERITAGE ACROSS GENERATIONS, RENDERING A PRECISE MOMENT TIMELESS.
FORTY THOUSAND YEARS AGO, OUR ANCESTORS USED CAVE WALLS AS THEIR CANVASES AND ANIMALS AS THEIR MUSES.
SIMILARLY, GOING BACK FURTHER IN TIME, TREES HAVE BEEN SECRETLY DRAWING THEIR ART FIGURES AND FORMS, USING WOOD AS THEIR CANVASES, NATURE AND NURTURE AS THEIR MUSES. ”

The tree magically paints distinct figures by blending its gene heritage with hundreds of years of intimate interactions with its habitat's water, sun, wind, and soil.

RENAISSANCE OF THE MASTER TREE®

Master Artists such as Van Gogh, or Vermeer, became renowned post-mortem, leaving behind them a wealth of undiscovered masterpieces. The same thought applies when searching for a Master Tree®: we must wait until they reach the stage of decay before uncovering their art, it is only then that it can be deemed complete.

Our quest is to uncover the chefs-d'oeuvres of unique Master Trees, a lifetime's worth of figures and shapes.

Work of art painted while the Master Tree® is splitting and resisting to wind.

The Master Tree® paints breathtaking three-dimensional stripes and ripples during its gene mutation phase.

A dazzling burl figure, the sole remaining witness to the Master Tree's® period of struggle against illness.

A Master Tree® hidden underground for thousands of years paints with stunning gold sparkles and lustrous colors.
